

SIX STEPS THAT WILL HELP YOU SURVIVE RHET 105 WITH MS. HAYS

Presented by: Berenice Rodriguez

STEP NUMBER ONE: EAT BREAKFAST

Breakfast is known to be the most important meal of the day and depending what time you've scheduled Rhetoric 105 with Ms.Hys you should not be on an empty stomach.

Being on an empty stomach will...

1. Distract you
2. May cause you to fall asleep in class
3. Show Ms.Hays that you are not prepared for class by not being attentive

STEP NUMBER TWO: BE DILIGENT WITH YOUR TIME

It can be easy to fall behind in this class if you don't manage your time properly especially with the amount of workload given.

If you don't manage your time you will..

1. Fall behind in class
2. Not understand what is going on in each unit
3. Not improve in your writing capabilities and analytical thinking skills

STEP NUMBER THREE: TAKE GOOD NOTES

Taking good notes during class will help you understand the material a lot better and is essential to improving your writing.

When you take good notes...

1. They might be color coordinated
2. Make sure to summarize and not cop word for word because they could take some time
3. You should also be aware of what Ms.Hays says regarding the one you're taking especially if you're confused

STEP NUMBER FOUR: VOLUNTEER IN CLASS AND USE YOUR VOICE

Ms. Hays will ask you to volunteer in class and the more you volunteer the better. You'll also have to be a bit loud to make sure Ms.Hays can hear you.

When you volunteer in class...

1. It shows Ms. Hays that you are prepared for class and are actively participating
2. Shows that you understand and are alert of your surroundings
3. Will make Ms.Hays happy

STEP NUMBER SIX: MAKE FRIENDS AND HAVE FUN

When you become friends with the people around you it'll make class more fun. Also in your workshop groups it's good to exchange numbers just in case you're not sure about something that happened in class although you could also ask Ms.Hays.

When you make friends and have fun..

1. You'll feel less lonely
2. You could ask questions for reassurance
3. You could give help and get help
