

GENDER & WOMEN'S STUDIES

Spring 24 Classes With Seats Open

GWS 100: Intro Gender & Women's Studies; Credit: 3 Hours.

Interdisciplinary introduction to the study of gender, women & sexuality
Fulfills Gen Ed. for Social Science*

GWS 275: Politics of Fashion; Credit: 3 Hours.

The politics of dress indicates inseparable links between cultures, aesthetics, and politics, as demonstrated in debates about Muslim practices of veiling, the role of clothing in colonialism's "civilizing" mission, immigrant and "third world" sweatshop labor, fashion policing and subcultural style, and the fashion and modeling industries.

Fulfills Gen Ed. for Cultural- U.S. Minority*

GWS 399: Internship; Credit: 3 Hours.

Directed internship experience for GWS students. Students will complete course requirements in addition to holding a semester long internship. Students must have consent of the Internship Coordinator.

GWS 495: Representations of the Black Female Body;_

Credit: 3 Hours - Undergrads; 4 Hours Grads.

Examines varying representations of the Black female body with emphasis on photography, art, and visual culture across the 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries.

For Both Undergrads and Grads**

Undergrads please obtain permission from the Professor.

For more information go to:

courses.illinois.edu/schedule/2024/spring/GWS

Questions?

Please email tmatos@illinois.edu