

Grad Student Professional Development Workshops

This summer, the Graduate College Career Development Office will offer workshops every Tuesday afternoon (from June 5 to August 7, except July 10) from 3:30-5:00 PM in Lincoln 1002.

June 5: Talking About Your Research

June 12: Explaining Graduate-Level Experience in Resumes & Cover Letters

June 19: Thesis Review & Deposit

June 26: GradMAP - Setting Goals and Developing Skills in Grad School

July 3: Career Q&A

July 17: Strategies for Managing Difficult Projects

July 24: Staying Organized during a Job Search

July 31: Expanding & Maintaining Your Network - Get People On Your Team

August 7: Getting Ready for a Job Search This Fall

Faculty Job Search Retreat 2018

Going on the faculty job market soon? Join us on July 10 for valuable advice on from our Career Development staff and from faculty who have served on search committees at a range of institutions. This afternoon seminar includes presentations, hands-on activities, and a panel that will get you ready to apply for faculty jobs this fall. Registration required: <http://go.grad.illinois.edu/fjsr>

Career Exploration Group

The Career Exploration Group provides a guided discovery process and collaborative environment for graduate students who are changing their career plans. Participants will work with career advisors to identify and explore broader career options that fit their skills, interests, and values. They will also learn about resources for job searching and how to begin the process of developing effective application materials. The Summer 2018 Career Exploration Group will meet Wednesdays from 3:00 - 5:00pm, starting July 18 and ending August 8. Registration required: <http://go.grad.illinois.edu/CareerExpGroup>

Get more information about these events at grad.illinois.edu/careers/workshops