› Joe Van Alstyne, majoring in Japanese

› Sambat Jerry Kim, majoring in International Studies and Communication

I know that since I was young, I aspire to choose a career that allow me to work abroad and use my education locally and internationally. Currently, I am majoring in International Studies with an emphasis in Trade and Commerce and minoring in Communication at the University of Utah. Pursuing degrees in International Studies and Communication will allow me to work in International Business, Education and work for the U.S Embassy in the future. I was a transfer student from Salt Lake Community College. Before I start my new adventure at the University of Utah, I applied for FLAS Scholarship for Cambodian language and I received it. Words cannot express how happy I am and so thankful for FLAS Scholarship because one of my dream is to work for the U.S Embassy in Cambodia. Now, FLAS Scholarship gives me the opportunity to learn my native language, gain the knowledge from native instructor and use these experiences for my future careers.
