

Master of Human Resources and Industrial Relations

The School of Labor and Employment Relations is internationally recognized as one of the premier professional programs of its kind.

- ⇒ Be part of a 60+ year history of world-class faculty with expertise that spans virtually every aspect of the employment relationship.
- ⇒ Encounter a personal atmosphere where classmates bond together within a competitive environment.
- ⇒ Experience a flexible curriculum that allows you to tailor courses that meet your particular interests and career aspirations within the field of human resources and employment relations.
- ⇒ Join a large, well-connected, and supportive alumni network that will carry you through your professional career.

In 2013-2014, LER master's students came from 104 undergraduate institutions (57 domestic, 47 international), 65 majors, 20 states, and 7 countries. The class was 67% female, 23% minority (African American, Asian/Pacific Islander, Latino/a, Native American or Alaskan), and 30% international. Thirty-seven percent of the students had a year or more of work experience and the average age at entrance was 24.

The average private sector annual salary for full-time hires was $77,178 ($63,000-$93,000) with an average signing bonus of $8,538. Private sector intern salaries averaged $5,077 ($1,400-$6,933) per month.

MHRIR Informational Meeting

Monday, October 27, 2014

Labor and Employment Relations Building
Room 35

5:30-7:00 p.m.

Dinner Provided!

Interested in pursuing a career in human resources and/or labor relations? Come learn more about the Master of Human Resources and Industrial Relations (MHRIR) Program at the School of Labor and Employment Relations. Join faculty and staff for curriculum overview, admissions requirements, and career opportunities in the field. Hear from current students as they share their experiences!

School of Labor and Employment Relations
504 E. Armory Avenue
Champaign, IL 61820
217-333-1482
www.ler.illinois.edu