

BECOME A FORMATTER FOR *RE:SEARCH

Re:Search, the Undergraduate Literary Criticism Journal at Illinois, is looking for students to aid in formatting student-submitted journal articles for our second annual publication. Prior experience is not required, but a familiarity with Microsoft Word 2011/2013 is preferred.

WHAT YOU'LL BE DOING

Having a clean, professional journal is important; we want our authors' hard work to look as professional as their content. Formatters will play a vital role in deciding the aesthetic of the finished product. Responsibilities will include: formatting images, working with typeface, modifying templates.

BENEFITS

If you choose to participate, you will be acknowledged in the online and print versions of the journal, as well as gaining experience that can be easily applied as a resume-builder.

HOW TO SIGN UP

Send an email to the journal technician, Kevin Mallin, at kmallin2@illinois.edu. If you wish to participate in the formatting process, you will be expected to attend a short, informal meeting to be announced in March. We'll tell you everything you need to know to make sure this year's publication is as good-looking as possible.

QUESTIONS?

Feel free to email any questions to the journal technician, email address above. We look forward to your help and input on making our journal look great!
