

Proposal Workshop

Wednesday, October 12th, 2016 | 5:00-5:50 PM
English Building | Room 108

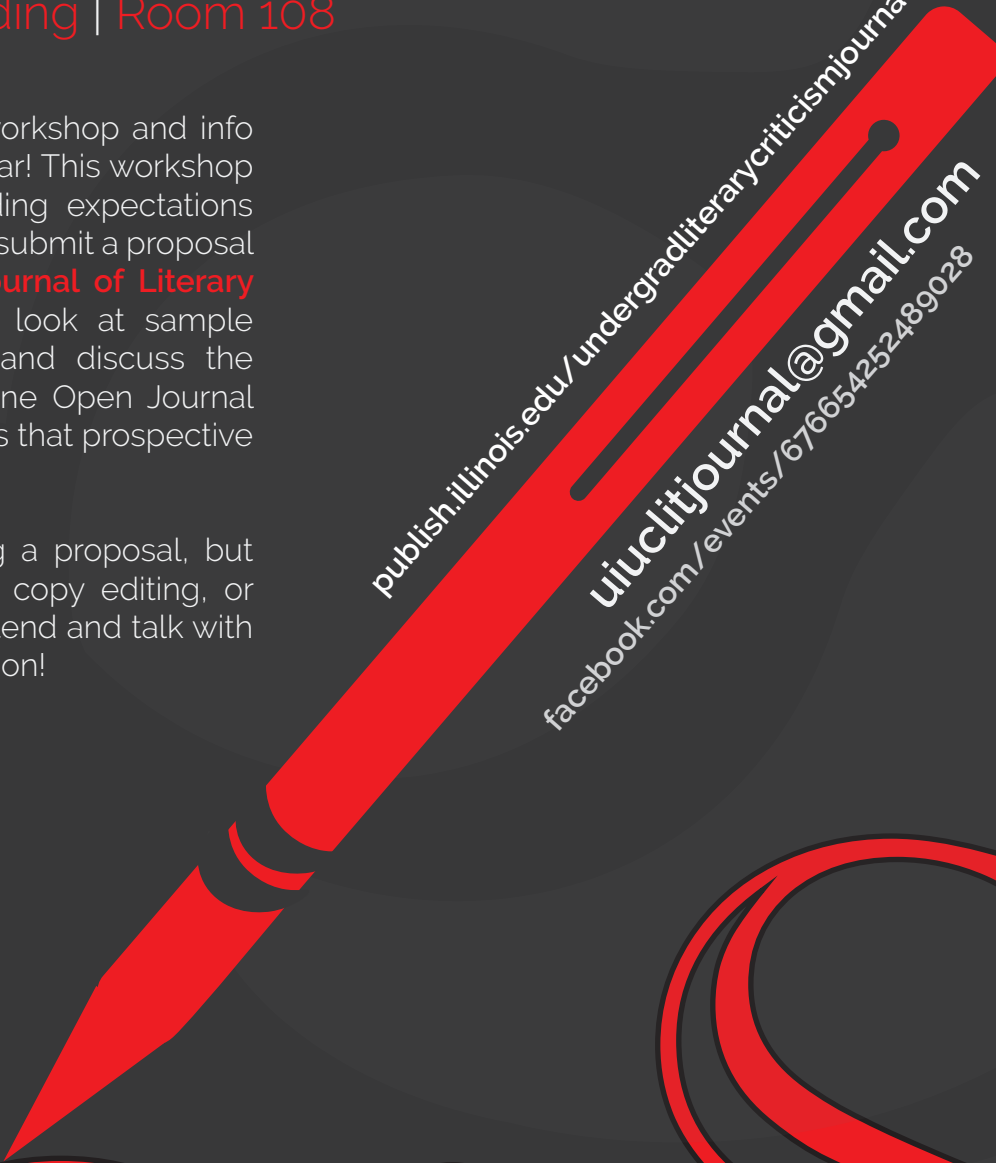

Join us for our first official proposal workshop and info session of the 2016-2017 academic year! This workshop will offer detailed information regarding expectations and guidelines for authors planning to submit a proposal to Re:Search, the Undergraduate Journal of Literary Criticism at Illinois. We will take a look at sample proposals, review proposal format, and discuss the submission process through the Online Open Journal System. Re:Search highly recommends that prospective authors attend this session.

If you are not considering submitting a proposal, but wish to get involved in peer review, copy editing, or format editing, you are welcome to attend and talk with our Executive Board for more information!

FOOD WILL BE PROVIDED!

We recommend RSVP-ing to our Facebook event so that we can prepare materials (and food!) accordingly.

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!
