

Queer Lives, Queer Politics

GWS 255, 3 credits

What's queer? What's politics? Who are queer people and how do they organize, resist, create communities, decide what counts as queer? How does wondering about queer resistance help us imagine new futures and radical possibilities? Queer Lives, Queer Politics asks these questions and examines the relationship between practices of non-normative sexuality and the formation of political movements

Summer 2013

Session I (May 13- June 8)
M-F, 9-12:00

Questions? Email rmattso2 at Illinois dot edu